MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE:

For several years the Harold Pratt House (Publishers of "Foreign Affairs") has sponsored the "Council on Foreign Relations"-- a group of individuals highly placed in the political and diplomatic field. One of the vice presidents of this council is Mr. A. W. Dulles.

The Council is forming a new discussion group for the purpose of occasional discussions of Soviet policy. They have invited our [redacted] to sit as a member.

There are obvious advantages and disadvantages to an employee of CIG being a member of such a group. It is suggested that you discuss this with Mr. Dulles on Thursday, 19 December, in New York.

Discussed with the Director.

20 Dec '46

As result of his visit to New York on 19-20 Dec the Director feels it would be undesirable for one of our key employees to sit as a member of the proposed discussion group.
